

COSC150: Laboratory 2 (12 January 2020)

Collaborative Work and Intro to Modeling

1. It takes work (LABOR) to Collaborate. We explore several characteristics of good collaboration environments.
  - a. Be sure you are signed up for PIAZZA, and that you have saved (or know how to reach) the link for this class:
<https://piazza.com/wofford/spring2021/cosc150/home>
    - i. Follow along the “class tour of Piazza”
    - ii. Pick HW1 or HW2 and make a comment or ask a question.
  - b. Go to the class collaboration page in Google Sheets:
<https://tinyurl.com/COSC150-Collaborations>
2. Models and modeling: For each entry in the Collaboration Sheet, enter as many model ideas as you can
